The ingredients: Hachiro's 1996 article, which takes an over-the-hill, diamond-cutting and dollar-store (they always have a dollar store) approach to the diamond industry and how to run it. The two best stories, in my opinion, are "The Diamond Industry's Dirty Little Secret" and "Diamonds: The Real Deal." The former is a 1996 article about the diamond industry's dirty little secret, which is that the industry is a cartel. The latter is a 1996 article about the diamond industry's real deal, which is that the industry is a cartel.

When next the Fuller Man calls—

—then is your opportunity to hear of the newest and latest ways of scientific home cleaning. There are 400 of these Fuller Men, each assigned to a definite territory, and calling at the homes at regular intervals. Their real mission is Service—to give to the busy housekeeper new suggestions as to easier methods of doing all the big and little cleaning tasks, in less time and with less exertion, and to demonstrate the means that will accomplish such results. Only by actual demonstration of Fuller Brushes on the cleaning work of your own home can you get the full value of this Service. This is why Fuller Brushes are sold only by the Fuller Man in this home-demonstrating manner.

Your Fuller Man is a resident of your own community. He is a gentleman; courteous, and considerate of the time you give him. Representing, as he does, one of the largest houses in the world, you can receive him with absolute confidence. You are under no obligation to buy. However, should you make a selection, you pay no money until the brushes are delivered to you by this same Fuller Man. All Fuller Brushes are made in our own factory at Hamilton.

A Fuller Man will soon call on you to show you this Fuller Duster, or any of the 44 other Fuller Brushes in which you are interested. Welcome him, and the Service he brings.

If a Fuller Man has not called on you recently write to any one of our Branch Offices (for address look in telephone book).
